When the T Inspires

Expressions of friendship, memory, love, esteem, gratitude, felicity, honor, respect, sympathy—these are some amongst the higher uses for flowers.

And it is, when flowers are in one of these ways called to serve, that the skill of this progressive flower shop meets its most exacting test.

For it is then that the designing is called—thought may be stated—to enhance the emotions of flowers to these greater human uses.

Remembrance flowers may be telegraphed on few hours' notice to even most distant places.

True Memorials

are the monuments designed, built and erected by us. They express, as exquisite granite or marble only can, the true spirit and character of your devotion for the one who has gone before. Let us plan your memorial stone and it will do the subject full justice.
